Accent Strings

Accent Strings is comprised of performance-major graduates and postgraduates of the Sydney Conservatorium of Music and Orchestral Professionals. They provide outstanding string quartets and trios for hire across the Sydney Metropolitan Area.

A wedding is an occasion of immense spiritual significance, and from antiquity, classical music has accompanied the service because its aesthetic refinement symbolizes the purity of sensibility and emotion involved.

Accent Strings specialise in wedding ceremonies and receptions. Their wide experience furnishes them with not only performance skills, but also discretionary qualities of coordination, timing and subtlety. These are especially vital within the delicate dynamic of a wedding service.

Accent Strings will tailor the musical ambience to suit your occasion's particularities and logistics. This may depend on factors such as ensemble type, repertoire selection, and performance space and acoustics. You may have a precise vision of what's required, or a vague idea, or you may prefer to leave it to their artistic discretion - as you wish!

Accent Strings are available as a Duo, Trio and Quartet or larger. They are also able to play a large repertoire of classical and pop/jazz pieces.
